DOT is an Equal Opportunity Employer

All qualified applicants will be considered regardless of political affiliation, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability, or other non-merit factors. DOT provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify us. Decisions on granting reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Why Work For Us?

Transportation impacts every facet of American life, providing people access to work, school, loved ones, and nature's rich bounty. The U.S. Department of Transportation is committed to transportation excellence and strives to create the best possible integrated air, land, and sea transportation system for America. As a DOT employee, you will become a part of the dedicated workforce who works day-to-day to make measurable improvements in our transportation system, the security of our nation, and the quality of American life.

The Federal Railroad Administration's mission is to enable the safe, reliable, and efficient movement of people and goods for a strong America, now and in the future. The Federal Railroad Administration (FRA) promulgates and enforces rail safety regulations; consolidates government support of rail transportation activities; administers financial assistance programs; conducts research and development in support of improved railroad safety and efficiency, and national transportation policy, including improved intercity passenger service.

FRA is committed to fostering a diverse, highly skilled workforce capable of meeting or exceeding our strategic goals with efficiency, innovation, and a constant focus on better serving our customers.

Summary Of The Essential Job Functions: As a Railroad Safety Inspector (Hazardous Materials), you will be required to:

- Carry out periodic inspections of rail facilities that handle hazardous materials and rail cars used in the handling of hazardous materials for compliance with equipment and safety standards.
- Conduct investigations of accidents and collisions involving serious injury to employees or property of the railroads and determine the cause and whether Federal regulations were violated.
- Investigate the construction, testing and manufacture of containers for hazardous materials.
- Investigate violations of hazardous materials regulations related to railroads.
- Provide information to industry representatives, state and local authorities regarding hazardous materials regulations.
- Conduct safety meetings and training sessions for railroad and shippers' employees on the proper handling of hazardous materials.

What Are The Minimum Qualifications For This Position?

You must have at least one year of specialized experience in or directly related to the essential job functions described above. For Federal employees this experience must have been at the next lower grade level. If you want us to consider experience you obtained outside the Federal Government, it must have been at that same level of complexity. The specialized experience must demonstrate:

- Broad knowledge of the railroad industry including economic and operating considerations and equipment;
- Knowledge of the general safety and health principles and practices applicable to the railroad industry;
- Knowledge of railroad accident investigation techniques; and

- Skill in written and oral communication.

- Practical knowledge of the typical reactions of different hazardous commodities to various environmental conditions and of safe procedures for containing or controlling fires, leaks or explosions of these materials;

- Knowledge of the construction, testing and retesting of containers used to ship hazardous materials by rail; and

- Knowledge of Federal regulations and standards governing the shipment of hazardous materials by rail including containerization, loading, handling, documentation and placarding.

What Are The Desired Knowledge, Skills And Abilities For This Job?

See the Qualification Requirements listed above.

Other Special Job Requirements

- If selected, you will be required to possess a valid State driver's license at all times while employed by the FRA in order to perform the duties of the position.

- If selected, you must pass a Drug Test prior to appointment unless you are presently employed in a DOT position that requires drug testing. You also will be subject to random drug testing while employed in this safety-sensitive position.

- The position requires extensive travel.

- This position is eligible for full-time telework, and the selectee must reside (or be willing to move at his/her own expense) within the geographic area of the duty location stated above. The duty location for a full-time telework is usually the residence or other approved telework site. The actual duty location is subject to approval by the Regional Administrator. Salary will be adjusted based on the duty location.

How Will The Qualified Applicants Be Further Evaluated And Rated To Identify The Best Qualified?

If you are basically qualified for this job, you will be further evaluated on the quality and extent of your total accomplishments, experience and education related to the knowledge, skills and abilities listed below, if any. We also may consider your performance appraisal, awards, and relevant training. Your ranking will measure the degree to which your background matches the demands of this position.

What Employee Benefits Do We Provide?

The Federal Government offers excellent benefits, flexible work schedules and family-friendly programs. You will receive paid annual leave and sick leave. Depending on whether the position you are applying for is permanent or time limited, you will be eligible for retirement, health insurance, life insurance and Long Term Care insurance. A brief summary of the Federal benefits for permanent employees can be found at www.usajobs.opm.gov/EI61.htm.

Before You Go Any Further, Here Are Some Other Things You Need to Know

- United States citizenship is required. (Proof of citizenship will be required to be shown upon appointment.)
- If you are a male between the ages of 18 and 26 or were born after December 31, 1959, certification is required at the time you are employed that you have registered with the Selective Service for the draft, unless Selective Service has approved a waiver for you.
- You must meet the qualification and time-in-grade requirements by the closing date of the announcement.
- If you can be appointed under a special appointment authority, please let us know on your application the special appointing authority for which you can be considered. You must submit proof of your eligibility for a special appointment authority.
- If the selection results in the promotion or reassignment of a current FRA Railroad Safety Inspector Trainee, travel and transportation expenses to the new duty location will be paid by the FRA in accordance with applicable Federal regulations. If the selection results in the reassignment of a current GS-12 FRA employee or a change to lower grade of a current FRA employee, transportation and travel expenses will NOT be paid.
- The FRA has determined that railroad seniority rights, leaves of absence, and reemployment rights generally constitute an actual or an appearance of a conflict of interest. New employees may be required to divest themselves of such rights immediately upon hire if these rights are determined to constitute an actual or appearance of a conflict of interest. If new employees are permitted to retain such rights, which is generally the case for Railroad Safety positions, the rights must be divested at the end of the one year probationary period. No waivers of this requirement will be granted.
- FRA employees are prohibited from owning railroad stock, except, under certain circumstances, as part of a diversified mutual fund.
- If selected, you will be subject to the Standards of Ethical Conduct applicable to all DOT employees.

- TRAVEL EXPENSES: Travel and transportation expenses WILL NOT be paid.

- GOVERNMENT TRAVEL CARD REQUIREMENT: You must be able to retain a Government contractor-issued travel card to be used for official business as a condition of employment. If unable to obtain and/or retain a card, you may be subject to removal. Those who fail to meet this condition of employment will have our offer of employment rescinded.

How To Apply For This Position

1) You may submit your current Resume or an OF-612 (Optional Application for Federal Employment). The OF-612 can be found on the OPM website at www.opm.gov under Federal Forms. You may choose which form to submit provided it contains all required information. Required information is listed in the section below labeled "Here's What Your Application Must Contain." Please be sure to indicate what grade level(s) you are applying for and the duty location.

2) You may submit the attached Voluntary Reassignment Application Form instead of an application or resume if you are eligible for consideration for voluntary reassignment to Railroad Safety Inspector, GS-12 positions under Article 11, Section D of the Memorandum of Agreement between the FRA and the American Federation of Government Employees,

Local 2814 dated May 2000. If you are not eligible under the above Article 11, Section D, you must submit one of the forms listed in (1) above.

3) A complete performance appraisal is required. It must be current – meaning it was issued to you within the past year – and it must be official – meaning it appraises your performance over a normal rating cycle in your present job and has been signed by your supervisor. If you are unable to submit your current performance appraisal, please tell us why. You also should submit a copy of your latest SF-50 "Notification of Personnel Action" that reflects career or career-conditional tenure. You do not need to submit a performance appraisal or an SF-50 if you are using the Voluntary Reassignment Application Form.

4) To be considered for selection priority under the Career Transition Assistance Program (CTAP), you must submit appropriate certification that you are eligible. In addition, you must be determined to be well-qualified for the position. Well-qualified applicant: An eligible applicant who meets all qualifications, standards, and eligibility requirements for the position, including medical qualifications; minimum educational and experience requirements; selective placement factors; knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSAs); quality ranking factors; and any other special qualifying conditions, and is able to satisfactorily perform the duties of the position upon entry.
