Why Work For Us?

Transportation impacts every facet of American life, providing people access to work, school, loved ones, and nature's rich bounty. The U.S. Department of Transportation is committed to transportation excellence and strives to create the best possible integrated air, land, and sea transportation system for America. As a DOT employee, you will become a part of the dedicated workforce who works day-to-day to make measurable improvements in our transportation system, the security of our nation, and the quality of American life.

The Federal Railroad Administration's mission is to enable the safe, reliable, and efficient movement of people and goods for a strong America, now and in the future. The FRA, an Operating Administration under the Department of Transportation, was created to promote and enforce safety throughout the U.S. railroad system, rehabilitate the Northeast Corridor rail passenger services, consolidate Federal support for rail transportation, and support research and development for rail transportation for passengers, railroad employees and the general public.

Summary Of The Essential Job Functions: As a Railroad Safety Inspector (Track), you will be required to:

- Carry out periodic inspections of track systems in an assigned territory.
- Conduct investigations of accidents, derailments and collisions involving serious injury to employees or property of the railroads and determine the cause and whether Federal regulations were violated.
- Investigate complaints from railroad employees, the general public and governmental representatives regarding unsafe track conditions.
- Provide technical advice and interpretation of regulations to railroad officials as necessary.
- Conduct safety meetings and training sessions for railroad employees on the proper inspection and maintenance procedures for track and related equipment.

What Are The Minimum Qualifications For This Position?

You must have at least one year of specialized experience in or directly related to the essential job functions described above. For Federal employees this experience must have been at the next lower grade level. If you want us to consider experience you obtained outside the Federal Government, it must have been at that same level of complexity. The Qualification Standards state you MUST have demonstrated knowledge in the following areas:

- Broad knowledge of the railroad industry including economic and operating considerations and equipment;
- Knowledge of the general safety and health principles and practices applicable to the railroad industry;
- Knowledge of railroad accident investigation techniques; and
- Skill in written and oral communication.
- Knowledge of railroad track system construction, maintenance, testing or inspection techniques;
- Knowledge of the capabilities and limitations of various track system configurations; and,

- Knowledge of Federal railroad track safety standards.

What Are The Desired Knowledge, Skills And Abilities For This Job?

In addition to meeting the minimum qualifications, you must demonstrate one year at the lower grade level of specialize experience:

- Conducting track inspections and applying Part 213 and 214 regulations for the purpose of reporting on the safety compliance conditions of the railroad track, facilities, safe working procedures and provisions of the employees, and the surrounding track right-of-way areas and have knowledge of proper remedial action to those conditions?
- Analyzing information that can be used during the course of conducting railroad inspections, or used to determine probable cause of railroad related collisions, derailments, or other accidents/incidents.
- Writing, presenting, and reporting on information pertaining to railroad track safety inspections and investigations.

Other Special Job Requirements:

- If selected, you will be required to possess a valid State driver's license at all times while employed by the FRA in order to perform the duties of the position.
- If selected, you must pass a Drug Test prior to appointment unless you are presently employed in a DOT position that requires drug testing. You also will be subject to random drug testing while employed in this safety-sensitive position.
- The position requires extensive travel.
- This position is eligible for full-time telework, and the selectee must reside (or be willing to move at his/her own expense) within the geographic area of the duty location stated above. The duty location for a full-time telework is usually the residence or other approved telework site. The actual duty location is subject to approval by the Regional Administrator. Salary will be adjusted based on the duty location.

How Will The Qualified Applicants Be Further Evaluated And Rated To Identify The Best Qualified? If you are basically qualified for this job, you will be further evaluated on the quality and extent of your total accomplishments, experience and education related to the knowledge, skills and abilities listed below, if any. Your ranking will measure the degree to which your background matches the demands of this position.

What Employee Benefits Do We Provide? The Federal Government offers excellent benefits, flexible work schedules and family-friendly programs. You will receive paid annual leave and sick leave. Depending on whether the position you are applying for is permanent or time limited, you will be eligible for retirement, health insurance, life insurance and Long Term Care insurance. A brief summary of the Federal benefits for permanent employees can be found at http://www.fra.dot.gov/Page/P0383.

Before You Go Any Further, Here Are Some Other Things You Need to Know:

- United States citizenship is required. (Proof of citizenship will be required to be shown upon appointment.)

- If you are a male between the ages of 18 and 26 or were born after December 31, 1959, certification is required at the time you are employed that you have registered with the Selective Service for the draft, unless Selective Service has approved a waiver for you.
- You must meet the qualification and time-in-grade requirements by the closing date of the announcement.
- If you can be appointed under a special appointment authority, please let us know on your application the special appointing authority for which you can be considered. You must submit proof of your eligibility for a special appointment authority.
- If the selection results in the promotion or reassignment of a current FRA Railroad Safety Inspector Trainee, travel and transportation expenses to the new duty location will be paid by the FRA in accordance with applicable Federal regulations. If the selection results in the reassignment of a current GS-12 FRA employee or a change to lower grade of a current FRA employee, transportation and travel expenses will NOT be paid.
- Pursuant to 5 C.F.R. Parts 2635.403 and 6001.104, all FRA employees (or spouses or minor children of FRA employees) are specifically prohibited from holding railroad stock (including shares of Berkshire Hathaway, Inc. which owns 100% of BNSF), whether held outright, in an IRA, or in a 401(k) or other plan. (Employees may hold a mutual fund which invests in railroad stocks, so long as the mutual fund does not invest more than 30% of its assets in such prohibited investments.) Employees having a prohibited financial interest must divest themselves of railroad stock within 90 days after their appointment to their positions. Neither the rule against holding railroad stock, nor the divestiture period, is in any way affected by the existence of re-employment rights which employees might have with railroad companies. Nor is there any monetary threshold for applicability of the rule against ownership of railroad stock; all dollar amounts are prohibited.
- FRA employees are prohibited from owning railroad stock, except, under certain circumstances, as part of a diversified mutual fund.
- If selected, you will be subject to the Standards of Ethical Conduct applicable to all DOT employees.
- TRAVEL EXPENSES: Travel and transportation expenses WILL NOT be paid.
- GOVERNMENT TRAVEL CARD REQUIREMENT: You must be able to obtain and retain a Government contractor-issued travel card to be used for official business as a condition of employment. If unable to obtain and/or retain a card, you may be subject to removal. Those who fail to meet this condition of employment will have our offer of employment rescinded.

How To Apply For This Position:

1) You may submit your current Resume which requires information listed in the section below labeled "Here's What Your Application Must Contain." Please be sure to indicate what grade level(s) you are applying for and the duty location.

2) You may submit the attached Voluntary Reassignment Application Form instead of an application or resume if you are eligible for consideration for voluntary reassignment to Railroad Safety Inspector, GS-12 positions under Article 11, Section D of the Memorandum of Agreement between the FRA and the American Federation of Government Employees, Local 2814 dated May 2000. If you are not eligible under the above Article 11, Section D, you must submit one of the forms listed in (1) above.

3) A complete performance appraisal is required. It must be current – meaning it was issued to you within the past year – and it must be official – meaning it appraises your performance over a normal rating cycle in your present job and has been signed by your supervisor. If you are unable to submit your current performance appraisal, please tell us why. You also should submit a copy of your latest SF-50 "Notification of Personnel Action" that reflects career or career-conditional tenure. You do not need to submit a performance appraisal or an SF-50 if you are using the Voluntary Reassignment Application Form.

4) To be considered for selection priority under the Career Transition Assistance Program (CTAP), you must submit appropriate certification that you are eligible. In addition, you must be determined to be well-qualified for the position. Well-qualified applicant: An eligible applicant who meets all qualifications, standards, and eligibility requirements for the position, including medical qualifications; minimum educational and experience requirements; selective placement factors; knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSAs); quality ranking factors; and any other special qualifying conditions, and is able to satisfactorily perform the duties of the position upon entry.
